Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1, 2, 9, 10, and 32, drawn to isolated virus, and isolated viral nucleic acid, classified in class 424, subclass 204.1.
- II. Claims 3-6, drawn to polypeptide, classified in class 530, subclass 300. (Please note if this group is selected further select one sequence, or one segment as recited in claim 5 to be examined on the merits, and amend the claims accordingly, see below for explanation)
- III. Claims 7, 8, 27, drawn to antibodies, classified in class 436, subclass 548.
- IV. Claims 11, 12, drawn to vectors and viral vectors, classified in class 424, subclass 199.1.
- V. Claims 13-16, drawn to method for testing efficacy of an agent, classified in class 435, subclass 5.
- VI. Claims 17-20, drawn to method of detecting a virus, classified in class 435, subclass 69.1.
- VII. Claims 21-22, drawn to method of detecting a virus, classified in class 514, subclass 44.
- VIII. Claims 23-25, drawn to method of detecting JMHV, classified in class 435, subclass 7.1.
- IX. Claim 26, drawn to kit container comprising primer, classified in class 536, subclass 23.1.

Art Unit: 1648

- X. Claims 28-31, drawn to non-human primate model, classified in class 800, subclass 21.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions of Groups I-X are mutually exclusive and patentably distinct products and methods, each are structurally and functionally different products and methods that are substantially different. The products are made by different methods, and multiple methods have different uses. The examination of all groups would require different searches in the U.S. Patent Shoes, in house and commercial databases, and scientific literature and would require the consideration of different patentability issues.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Upon election of Group II Applicants are additionally required to elect a single polypeptide, or a segment as indicated above as they apply to the group. The recited sequences have different structures one from other and the search for the sequences would be unduly burdensome. This requirement is not to be construed, as requirements for an election of species, since each of the polypeptides recited constitute an independent and patentably distinct invention.

Art Unit: 1648

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
